Auto Body Technician

Description
6/15/2026 WE ARE HIRING NOW!

Currently seeking a skilled auto body technician with drive to succeed and passion for the world's finest automobiles. Formal technical training is required. Pay is based on level of experience and skill. We offer top pay for top talent!

Duties include all stages of auto body from tear down, panel repair/replacement, prepping for paint, masking, sanding, cleaning through painting, buffing, reassembly.

Please send your resume and examples of your previous work.

We perform bodywork on the world's finest autos: Ferrari, Lamborghini, Maserati, Aston Martin, McClaren, Bentley, Rolls Royce, Mercedes, Porsche and other luxury cars. If working on the world's finest sports and collector cars is your dream, then our team looks forward to meeting you!

Restoration skills are necessary.
Independent techs with a passion for and understanding of world class fine restoration and bodywork are encouraged to apply.

Related keywords: auto body, auto body technician, body shop, automotive, restoration

Exoticars USA
636 Frenchtown Rd.

Employment Type
Full-time

Industry
auto

Job Location
636 Frenchtown Rd., 08848, Milford, NJ, USA

Working Hours
8:00 – 5:00 M-F

Base Salary
$ 55K - $ 80K

Date posted
April 3, 2024

Valid through 31.05.2024

Responsibilities
Knowledge and skill of tear down and reassembly, metal work, paint prep, painting and finish work required. Skills required include buffing and finishing vehicles, grinding, sanding and preparing panels for paint, metal pulling, tape, mask, and bag vehicles, mix paint and clean spray guns, spray primer and light body filler, interior repair on dashboards, center consoles, cloth and leather, and chip repair.

Qualifications
Minimum of 5 years experience in Auto Body Repair required.

Must have own tools, ICAR certifications, Technical school.

Job Benefits
Health insurance, Dental plan, Simple IRA, paid vacation and holidays, sick days, uniforms.